Empowered, Volume 6 (Empowered, #6) by Adam Warren Artist and writer Adam Warren pulls out all the stops in what was initially going to be the final volume of his parody series. Following the disastrous mission of the previous collection, Empowered and her allies must bury their dead. Empowered - Volume 5 Page 36 As a recovering nitpicker myself, I often find myself burning pagecount on time- (or space-)consuming clarifications and explanations, even though Empowered is a fairly allusive series overall. On comic projects with more limited pagecount I usually agonize (much) less over anti-nitpickery, given that I don't have the luxury to indulge such impulses. Empowered review 1: This series is more than it appears to be, more in fact than it purports to be. It presents itself on face value as an exploitative, borderline misogynistic effort and that may be its conception.
